Alphabet Sale and Leaseback

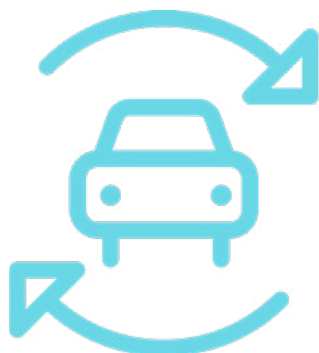

Funding options that benefit your business, while easing fleet management

If you own business vehicles, whether outright, via a loan or financed through multiple providers, a Sale and Leaseback agreement could make your life significantly easier. By transferring your vehicles into one of our funding arrangements, you can unlock immediate financial and operational benefits.

Alphabet Sale and Leaseback options give you an instant cash injection from capital you have tied up in your fleet, and eliminate risks like depreciation and unexpected maintenance costs.

There are also long-term tax benefits, like the reclamation of VAT (depending on the product you choose). Our Contract Hire and Contract Purchase products make managing your fleet simpler and easier, with more financial transparency, supported by our outstanding service.

What can Sale and Leaseback do for you?

Eliminate financial risk

When we buy your vehicles, we take on all the financial risks of ownership – like unpredictable resale values or unexpected repair costs. You no longer need to think about vehicle disposal, and we'll even manage the sourcing of any new vehicles.

Help you budget with confidence

One fixed monthly payment helps you budget more accurately and confidently – especially if you add additional benefits like Servicing and Maintenance or Breakdown Recovery.

Offer tax and balance sheet benefits

Contract Hire can offer VAT and Corporation Tax efficiencies and it takes your fleet off the balance sheet – which improves gearing. Whereas Contract Purchase leaves vehicles on the balance sheet, and is usually advised for companies that can't fully reclaim VAT.

Reduce your fleet management admin

With Sale and Leaseback, you can also take advantage of our Fleet Management services, including Servicing and Maintenance, Breakdown recovery, Accident Management, and Fuel Management – freeing you up to focus on your business.

Tap into our knowledge and experience

With our extensive experience of Sale and Leaseback for fleets of every size, choosing us will help ease your transition to leasing. Your fleet will run more smoothly and efficiently thanks to our thorough knowledge, flexible packages, and industry-leading service.
